ROOM 614

January 30, 1974

The Honorable
 William Colby
 Director of Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Colby

You very kindly told me when we met at dinner with our mutual friend Bob Komer that you would gladly come to lunch with the small group of foreign correspondents of which I am the secretary. I am therefore taking the liberty to ask you if you would be our guest at any date convenient to you. It would be of tremendous benefit for us to have the possibility to talk with you on the numerous international problems of the moment.

The Lindley rules, no attribution to the speaker or government sources, are strictly applied in our group. Our last guest on January 23rd was the Secretary of State Dr Henry Kissinger.

Yours very sincerely,

A. de Segonzac
